

The Florida Bar ADR Section Young Lawyer Member of the Year 2018 Nomination Form

The Young Lawyer Member of the Year Award recognizes a member of The Florida Bar Alternative Dispute Resolution Section who has demonstrated leadership and dedication to The Florida Bar, the ADR Section or the section's mission through executive council or committee service, volunteerism, significant professional contributions or the creative exchange of ideas. Lawyers under age 36 and new (first five years of membership) Florida Bar members in good standing are eligible to be nominated.

ADR Section Mission: The ADR Section was designed to provide a forum for lawyers interested in alternative dispute resolution and to provide a forum for discussion and exchange of ideas leading to an improvement of individual ADR skills and abilities. The ADR Section will keep the Bar membership informed and updated regarding legislation, rules, and policies in connection with mediation, arbitration and other ADR processes and the responsibilities they impose on mediator and arbitrator members, as well as provide quality continuing legal education programs.

The nomination deadline is 5 p.m., Friday, May 4, 2018.
Please mail or email nomination forms and supporting materials to:
